EASTERN NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Virginia Editors at New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14—The members of the Virginia Press Association now here yesterday called on the mayor at the city hall. General J. R. Clayton, editor of The South, was spokesman, and Thos. Whitehead, editor of the Amherst Enterprise and president of the association, spoke for the people of Virginia, expressing the feelings of friendship and good will which now attracted the people of the South toward the people of the North. At the end of the brief addresses the party retired to the mayor's private parlor, where they were entertained. In the evening the Virginians, escorted by other officials, attended Barney Williams' performance, and to-day visit the public institutions.

Pixley on the Directors of the Bank of California.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14—Pixley, at a meeting last night, attacked the directors of the Bank of California, and denied there was any defalcation. He said the directors lost their heads, acted like a set of school girls in a fire, and passed a resolution which broke Ralston's heart.

Good for Medill.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14—Medill, the veteran editor of the Chicago Tribune, in Saturday's paper rebukes Wednesday night's San Francisco meeting for going beyond its tribute to the dead. It says the meeting took a leaf from the Central Pacific and tried to destroy two newspapers, mediums of public opinion, the sentiments of which did not agree with its own. This is not fair play. Taking refuge behind a dead man to assault a living one has never been counted the extreme of gallantry. The article adds that criticism or personal assaults by the press cannot be successfully combatted by mob resolutions. The way to meet them is to disprove them.

Other Expressions on the Right Side.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14—A Tribune special denounces the attempt to vindicate Ralston by endeavoring to injure the Call and Bulletin. Their position has been attained by that very cause for which they are now abused, and their annihilation need not be immediately predicted. The Boston Advertiser and various other well known Eastern journals take the same view of the indiscreet abuse of independent newspapers by that meeting.

Arrested for Forgery.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 14—Robert N. Ritchie, formerly cashier of the Fourth National Bank of this city, was yesterday arrested on a charge of forgery made by Samuel R. Keyes, a broker who had charge of certain speculations of Mr. Ritchie's several years ago. The complaint charges that Ritchie forged Mrs. Charles Davenport's name to 300 shares of W. U. Telegraph stock.

The Fast Mail Trains to the West.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 14—The fast mail from New York arrived here at 8 o'clock A. M. and left for St. Louis exactly on schedule time.

Twenty-Six Hours from New York to Chicago.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14—The new fast mail train which left New York yesterday, over the Pennsylvania railroad, arrived here this evening, having made the run in 26 hours—the fastest time ever made between the two cities. This gives us the New York mail about 12 hours earlier than formerly.

Pugh Orates in New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14—Senator Pugh of Ohio delivered an oration to-day before the Veteran Association of the Mexican War.

Another Frightful Accident.

About half past 10 this morning, while experiments were making with Uda's patent aerial ladder in Rutger's square, an appalling accident occurred which resulted in the death of at least three men, and probably two or three others. It appears that as soon as the ladder had been put together and placed in position in the center of the square, the chief mounted to the top, followed by eight or ten of his men, ranged in various points along the ladder. The ladder looked to be nearly 100 feet in hight. The men had not been on the ladder more than a minute when it swayed backward and forward and suddenly snapped in two. The men were instantly precipitated to the ground, three of them being killed outright, and as many more dangerously hurt if not fatally. The bodies were immediately removed on trucks. The chief was among the killed.

Later information says it was William H. Walsh, chief of battalion, and not the chief engineer, who was killed, and the others killed outright by the fall were Philip Morse and William Hughes. The Aerial Ladder Company had been ordered out for practice, and while the men were going through their evolutions the accident occurred.

The Election in Maine.

BOSTON, Sept. 14—Additional returns from Maine this morning are meagre. In Cumberland county, which was hotly contested and where the Democrats had one senator and the county treasurer last year, they have made a complete sweep. Sagadahock county gives Connor a majority of 489, with Democratic gains in several towns. Waldo county complete, except Jackson, gives Roberts (Dem.) 75 majority, and elects Democratic county officers, one senator and four representatives. Nothing definite is known of the congressional contest in the fourth district, though Plaisted is doubtless elected. Connor's majority will not reach 5,000. It is conceded by Republican papers that nine constitutional amendments have probably been adopted.

AUGUSTA, Me., Sept. 14—Official returns from 264 towns give Connor 3,000 majority. The Democrats have elected 13 and perhaps 14 senators; the Republicans probably 1.

Direct Cable Business.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14—The Direct Cable Co., to-morrow, when the line opens for business, will transmit messages between America and Europe for 25 cents currency per word.

An Absconding Teller.

MONTREAL, Sept. 14—Thos. W. Nichols, the absconding teller of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, is supposed to have left for New York with his father. The amount taken is said to exceed $50,000.

Moulton Refuses to Consent to a Nolle Prosequi in the Libel Suit.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14—District Attorney Britton of Brooklyn addressed letters to Henry Ward Beecher and Francis D. Moulton, suggesting that public interests would be best served by entering a nolle prosequi in the case of Beecher against Moulton for libel. Beecher, in reply, concurs. Moulton says he cannot acquiesce in the action proposed, and concludes his letter as follows:

"I am indicted for libel in charging Rev. Henry Ward Beecher with criminal intercourse with female members of his congregation. The charge is true. He knows it to be true, and whatever the imperfections of man's tribunals, the Supreme Ruler will some day reveal the truth and vindicate the right for speaking the truth, and that too under challenge, and in defense of my own character and the character of her whose good name is dearer to me than life itself. I have been arraigned as a criminal and compelled, like a felon, to plead with uplifted hand, subjected to the ignominy of bonds against an escape from justice, loaded with obloquy by the public press, frowned upon and avoided by society, and now after the indictment against me has served its purpose by discrediting in advance the witness of Rev. Mr. Beecher's guilt, and it is apparent to you as it is to the world that I am innocent and must be acquitted, at this moment, and under these circumstances, I am requested to acquiesce in a nolle prosequi and to suffer my accuser to escape the penalty of his perjured persecutions. Never, sir, never. I demand a trial and shall be ready on any reasonable notice to make good my defense. Very respectfully,

FRANCIS D. MOULTON."

Return of Carl Schurz.

Alabama's Debt.

MONTGOMERY, Sept. 14—The committee on finance and taxation made a report to the constitutional convention to-day. They say the financial condition of the state is absolutely appalling, and that full payment of the state debt is impossible, but they believe a commissioner, appointed to adjust the public debt, will by a plan of rigid economy so reduce the debt that the state will be able to pay interest on the same at an early day.

Burning of the Steamer Zodiac.

KEY WEST, Sept. 14—The steamer Zodiac, which left Nassau on the 6th instant, took fire next morning, and with her cargo was totally destroyed. Passengers, officers and crew were saved. The disaster occurred 40 miles from Abaco. All hands took to the boats, in which they were one day before being rescued, with no provisions, under a broiling sun. The fire was probably caused by spontaneous combustion of old oakum.

WASHINGTON CITY

The Row between Delano and Prof. Marsh.

The Herald has the following story of the meeting at Washington between Secretary Delano and Prof. Marsh. A scene followed such as is seldom witnessed. Delano is made to call the professor a liar, poltroon and similar epithets. The professor answered that he would not be insulted by the secretary of the interior or any other man, that he had treated Delano as a gentleman should, which Secretary Delano denied, and left the room saying the professor did not know what a gentleman was.

Life Saving Stations.

CHICAGO, Sept. 14—A Washington special says the commission of the treasury department has completed the inspection of the Pacific coast for the erection of life saving stations. Eight stations will be established. The station at Neah Bay will be built on the Indian reservation, while the crew for the station will be made up of Indians. At Shoalwater Bay the station will be on the lighthouse grounds at Cape Disappointment; it will be on the military reservation at Cape Arago, on the lighthouse property at Humboldt Bay; the same in the vicinity of Duxbury Reef, one of the most dangerous points between Point Lobos and San Pedro; a station will be on the southwest corner of the Golden Gate park. At Point Conception in Cox's harbor one will be built that will be manned with a salaried crew the year round. The only other station where a regular crew will be annually employed will be at Duxbury Reef. Advertisement for proposals to build these stations will be made at once, so that the work will be completed by the close of next season.

The New Mint.

Dr. Linderman is in St. Louis to-day and leaves for Chicago to-morrow. He is gathering facts in to the location of the new mint.

Picking Up Small Thieves.

Internal revenue men are busy lately picking up small whisky thieves in Northern Georgia. Within a few days one hundred illicit stills have been secured. The penalty in every case will be a fine of $100 and imprisonment two months.

The department received to-day information of the capture of fifty additional illicit distilleries in the same section. This it is said has not been made without some loss, as a local agent named Greer, of Pickins county, has disappeared, and it is feared he has been foully dealt with. Authorities have picked up fifty whisky thieves in Virginia. These arrests are of no importance, but they show the activity of the revenue department.

The Red Cloud Investigation.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14—Prof. Marsh to-day before the Red Cloud Commission was questioned at length. He said Bosler was the real contractor for supplying beef to the Sioux agencies, though he might be acting under the control of others. He judged from experience with the Indian bureau that the commissioner was unwilling to receive information respecting the loose management of affairs at the Red Cloud agency. Prof. Marsh was interrogated at length, the allegations in his pamphlet forming the basis of the questions. He said in further testimony that the commissioner might believe what was told him about mismanagement, but the information was unkindly received. He was much more apt to be indignant with a person who brought information than with the person against whom fraud was alleged. Prof. Marsh having been asked whether there was anything offensive in saying he brought information to the attention of the commissioner, he replied there was not. He thought he was doing a favor in bringing the attention of the commissioner to the fact of the mismanagement, but his reception greatly amazed him, and but for the apparent reluctance of the commissioner to receive complaints he should have given him all the information in his possession. At this point Commissioner Smith came into the commission's room. What the commissioner of Indian affairs said would be found in Marsh's statement given in New York. The commissioner doubted the truth of some of Professor Marsh's statements, thinking he had been misled by the Indians' statements. Apart from the samples of sugar, flour and tobacco brought to the attention of the commission he could have given the commissioner other information if he had been disposed to receive it.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

The Turkish Civil War.

LONDON, Sept. 14—The Daily Telegraph publishes a special telegram from Vienna in which it is said Montenegro has definitely informed the insurgent leader she cannot make war against the Porte. The Times, in a leading article, says it is understood Russia will attempt to arrange a conference of the signers of the treaty of 1856 with the object of influencing the Porte regarding the future government of the Sclavonic provinces.

LONDON, Sept. 14—A letter to the Times, dated Cattaro, Dalmatia, September 6th, says the importance of the insurrection in lower Herzegovina diminishes on a near approach, while in Bosnia there is nothing worth mentioning except a panic and disorder, with an exodus of women and children in that part of Herzegovina west of the line drawn from Niksich to Mostar. The insurgents appear only at Bachda, without coherence or purpose. They are even without communication with the east portion of the province. The Herzegovinian parts of these bands are more inclined to pillage and petty thieving than fighting. Even the foreign volunteers who make the fighting nucleus suffer from their predatory propensities. Their number in all is apparently between one and two thousand, but the majority are generally absent during fighting, and only reappear when there is some booty to be taken off. The bands nominally under Jurobodo's number above 300 men who mean fighting.

Destitution among the Insurgents.

VIENNA, Sept. 14—In response to an appeal from the prince of Montenegro the Austrian government has sent a staff of surgeons to attend to the large number of wounded insurgents brought on to Montenegro territory, and the Governor of Dalmatia was instructed to forward food for 30,000 citizens now there in great distress and destitution.

More about the Rebellion.

LONDON, Sept. 14—A special from Vienna says the government arrived at an understanding with the committee of the Servian Skuptchina that the address in reply to the prince's speech shall make no demand for war, but contain a strong censure of Turkish rule.

A special to the Morning Standard says Servia complains to the powers of the concentration of a Turkish army at Nissa.

The report that the siege of Trebinje is renewed is untrue. Insurgents infest the neighboring roads, but are unable to block the town. Peter Karageorgewich, pretender to the Servian throne, is about to march into Servia with a corps of volunteers. His adherents there contemplate a revolution in his favor.

Prosecution of Socialists.

LONDON, Sept. 14—The Standard this evening says 61 men and 159 women were recently indicted in Russia, of whom 265 were arrested for participation in the socialist movement. The procureur general in the indictment says socialism is rapidly spreading through the empire. The most ardent propagandists of the movement belong to the upper classes. Among the indicted are retired officers, professors, justices of the peace, officials of all grades, and several ladies of high families. He says the socialists only await an opportunity, such as foreign war, to organize a revolution at home and put into practice their extravagant ideas.

Doings of the Bonapartists.

LONDON, Sept. 14—The Daily News has a special from Paris saying M. Rouher starts for Arenburg, Switzerland, Wednesday, to assist at a grand Bonapartist conclave on Friday. Admiral Roncere le Noury was also invited, but it is uncertain that he will accept. Emil Ollivier is certainly going. The Bonapartist propaganda is being vigorously pushed in the barracks of Paris, where the Pays and Ordre are profusely distributed gratuitously.

London Money and Stock Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14—A London dispatch says at the opening of business to-day the chief feature in the American market was the extreme dullness which prevailed in Erie, and its further decline of one half. There is but little inquiry for money, and no difficulty in obtaining all they want on prime collaterals. The current rate for best paper in open discount market is one five eighths percent.

Servia asked to join the Rebellion.

BELGRADE, Sept. 14—The Granite Zebar newspaper announces that a deputation of ten Herzegovinians recently arrived at Kragujewatz, asking Servia to aid in the insurrection. The government replied that it would wait until the Skuptchina decided the question. Many distinguished Servian officers have started for Bosnia. Seventy two flags are being made for the Servian army.

French Affairs.

PARIS, Sept. 14—At the meeting of the permanent committee of the assembly on Thursday next M. Buffet will be interrogated upon the intention of the government towards Bonapartists, and especially regarding the decision of the Bonapartist committee to print and disseminate ten million copies of Ducal's speech at Evreux, having for its preface the letters of Admiral Roncere le Noury and the Prince Imperial.

Spanish Affairs.

MADRID, Sept. 14—Regarding the recent ministerial crisis, it has transpired that three ministers who represented the old party, being opposed to universal suffrage, resigned contrary to the wishes of Calveros De Castello, who urged that the government ought to respect a vote of all its legally established. He would leave to a future cortes the task of modifying the law. Any alteration was then considered necessary. The king thereupon requested Senor Ibeyos De Castell to form a new cabinet. He declined on the ground that he had presided over a [illegible] which represented the concerted action of all the parties, and he ought not to remain at the head of one party only. The king then entrusted General Jovellar with the formation of a ministry. The present cabinet, which is more homogeneous and liberal than its predecessors, was constituted with the concurrence of De Castello. The river Tarn has risen greatly, carrying away several bridges. The Allier has also overflowed its banks, but the rains have ceased.

Movements of the French President.

CANADA.

A Shocking Railway Casualty.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14—A private telegram has been received in this city from Toronto announcing that a frightful accident occurred on the Grand Trunk Railroad this morning. A train was thrown from the track and several employes on the train killed. The whole train is a perfect wreck. To add to the horror the cars took fire and burned a number of cattle which were buried under the debris and actually roasted alive, it being impossible to extricate them.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

Greenbacks 86 buying, 87 selling.

Revenue Frauds in San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14—9:20 P. M.—Revenue officials were around to-day among wholesale liquor houses examining books, which resulted in finding many instances where packages of spirits gauged and reported at ten and twenty gallons each had been thrown upon the market as containing from 200 to 300 gallons. Most of these were from the Pacific Distillery, whose officers were reported yesterday as having made affidavit of the destruction of their accounts up to the first of last July. The discoveries thus far made by officials indicate very extensive frauds, in which not only dealers and distillers but also revenue officials are believed to be implicated. Telegrams from the revenue department at Washington received here to-day announce the dismissal from the service of J. N. Driscoll and F. M. Fontelle, U. S. gaugers, from complicity in these frauds. The investigation is being actively pushed, and it is probable that the guilty parties will be brought to account without any further delay than the work of unearthing the facts renders necessary.

Suicide.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 14—A lodger in the Overland house who registered his name as R. G. Brown was found dead in his bed this morning. When discovered he held a handkerchief in his hand firmly pressed to his nose. Under his pillow was a large vial partly filled with chloroform. Several letters were found in the pockets of his clothing, addressed to L. H. Day, Tumbull, Sacramento. There was also a certificate of honorable discharge from the Grand Gulf and Port Gibson Railroad employ. It is supposed he had been in the employ of the Central Pacific at Sacramento.

THE FAST MAIL

DESCRIPTION OF THE NEW CARS NOW BEING MANUFACTURED

Of the cars intended for this fast mail line three are being constructed in the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern car shop in Buffalo and will be completed by the 15th of September. The Courier describes them as follows:

They are fifty feet in length and four inches narrower than the ordinary Lake Shore and Southern Michigan car, in order that they may pass through the Hudson river tunnels. At one end of each of these cars are two compartments, one occupied by the heating apparatus and the other designed as the office of the chief clerk. This last will be furnished with a desk and lounge. Next forward is the distributing room, about fourteen feet long, and the width of the car, furnished with 946 letter boxes. The rest of the car forward is for the newspaper department and to receive the mails as they are caught at the stations by the simple but perfect contrivance which has been for some time in use on the principal mail routes. Every part of the car is heated by hot water pipes, and the arrangements for obtaining ventilation without the inconvenience of wind are excellent. The platforms are to be inclosed by partitions with doors at either side, so that open communication may be had with the several cars of the train without a rush of air to interfere with the work of the distributors. Each car will have the Miller platforms and couplers and Westinghouse brakes. All the cars of "The Fast Mail," as it is to be denominated, will be painted pure white and highly varnished both without and within, with the exception of the gold lettering and slightly tinted frieze and moldings. Along the frieze will be the names of the two roads; in the center of each side "The Fast Mail," and in the panels between the doors and the car ends the coat of arms of the United States.

Two cars similar to those described are building at Cleveland and four more at Adrian, Michigan. There will be six crews connected with the train, and changes will be made at Syracuse and Cleveland. All of the clerks will be taken from postal cars which will be discontinued, and will therefore be experienced. New schemes have been prepared for the use of the clerks of the territory which will contribute to this train, and embracing some eighteen states and territories and containing fifteen million people, or nearly one third of the entire population of the United States. Mail matter from the New England states will center at New York, while that of the Western and several of the Southern states will find a depot in Chicago. This is undoubtedly the greatest postal project ever attempted in the world.

The Walla Walla Union says: "Last fall one of our farmers received 100 pounds of wheat from the agricultural department at Washington, D. C., and planted it on two acres of ground. He has just threshed it and finds that he has 130 bushels, or 65 bushels per acre, giving nearly 82 pounds for each pound sown. This is certainly a good yield, and the grain is said to be very fine and ripens about two weeks earlier than our club wheat."

NASBY ON INFLATION

CONFEDRIT X ROADS, }
WICH IS IN THE STATE UV KENTUCKY, }
August 21, 1875.

The Corners hev red the speeches uv Honest Ole Bill Allen an that other gileless patriot General Sammel Cary uv Ohio on the momenchus subjick uv More Money till they hev bin worked up to a state uv absolute madnis. The Corners are jist the same ez all other impecoonius people—they want More Money, and the idee uv Honest Ole Bill Allen that to git it all yoo hed to do wuz to ishoo it, hiled our idees of finanse eggsackly. It is simple, effectooal and easily understood.

I determined to put the idee into practice, and to that end sejested to my friends the organizashen uv a bank uv ishoo under the name and title uv The Onlimited Trust and Confidence Company of Confederit X Roads.

I hed some trouble to git the citizens into it, but I finelly succeeded. I explained to the people that more money wood be an advantage to the debtor class, wich, ez nine tenths uv em wuz in debt to Bascom, settled them. They hailed with joy any movement that wood wipe out their scores and give em new credit at his bar.

To Bascom and them ez I intended to hev in the management I showed that more money meant increased trade, and ez the money wood all be ishood on our credit it woodent cost anything but the printing, we coodent lose anything. So the bank wuz started. I wuz made President, Issaker Gavitt Cashier, Bascom Vice President, with a Board uv Directors consistin of Kernel McPelter and the venerable Deekin Pogram. We put the Deekin on becoz he is bald headed and therefore respectable. His bizniss is to sit in the front window readin an inflashen paper. It inspires confidence. Yoo have to watch him to keep him from hevin the paper upside down, but in this community that don't matter, ez very few know the difference more n he does.

It wuz forchnit that our bankin room wuz lokated immejitly under the printin ofis, ez we kin let the printed notes wich we ishoo down to the President's desk by a rope. It saves labor, wich iz a great pint in a instooshen like ours.

The theory on wich our paper is ishood is very simple. The company ishoo it and the people take it. We have no time fixed for redempshun, fur the beauty uv the biznes is that we don't never intend to redeem. Our notes reads:

"The Onlimited Trust and Confidence Company uv Confedrit X Roads (which is in the State uv Kentucky) promises to pay the bearer One Dollar."

We don't say when, where or how, and therein is the strength uv the enterprise.

Our first ishoo wuz received with some hesitashen.

"Where is our secoority?" demanded one farmer to whom we offered it in payment for a load uv wheat.

"Faith in the company!" I ansered, lookin at him pityinly. "Gaze onto that face." I reckomend pintin at Deekin Pogram, who rather spiled the effeck by brushin off a fly that hed lited on his nose. "Look at that face and then ask for a secoority."

"When is it to be redeemed?" askt another.

"It never wants to be redeemed," wuz my answer. "We shall be libral, and when a note wears out we will give you another. What do you want it redeemed fur? Money ishood on faith needs no redempshun. We buy your prodoose with it; yoo yoose it to buy your goods, and so it goes [illegible] a circle, dispensin blessins wherever it lites. Ez long ez yoo take it, wat do yoo want uv any thing else?"

Another remarkt that it wuz his idea that paper money wuz all to be redeemed in gold.

"Gold!" I promptly replied, "is played out. Gold is merchandise. Our Democratic brethren in Ohio have declared that money is simply promises to pay, and that it don't matter on wat material the promise is stampt—whether gold, silver, iron, shells or copper. We shel put ourn on paper, cos it's the cheapest. We shel hev no extravagance about this bank."

Pollock, the Illinoy disturber, in the most brootal manner refoozed to tech it, and consekently his bizniss suffered. One shoemaker from Ohio followed soot, and undertook to argoo agin so much money. He asserted the heresy that addin to the volume uv currency didn't add nothin to its power. Sed he:

"I will illustrate so the Corners will comprehend. Yoo take a galon uv whisky and add to it three gallons uv water. Well, you hev four gallons in the barl, but there ain't but one gallon uv square in it after all."

I answered him by reading copious extrax from Cary's speeches showin that troo prosperity goes hand in hand with plenty uv money.

They finally was convinst and took our money for their grain, tho we had to pay them at the beginnin twenty cents a bushel more for their wheat than other money wood hev got it for. But we didn't care, for we knew we cood make all uv it we wanted.

It wuz astonishin wat a era uv prosperity set in on the Corners to wunst. Money became ez plenty ez blackberries, and everybody hed their pockets full uv it. Land went up in valyoo two hundred per cent in a week, and the price of the nessaries uv life rised ekally. Bascom put up his new whisky from 5 to 25 cents per drink, and sich wuz the run of trade he had that his wife and his oldest son, Jefferson Davis Bascom, both hed to stand in the bar to wait on customers. The bank sought all the wheat and other produckshuns and paid for em in its own money, and we paid sich prices ez happened, for money wuz with us no objeck. The high prices brought all the trade for twenty miles around to the Corners, and all the dealers who wood take the money stood up to their middles in it.

Then my turn come. Pintin to the crowds uv people in Bascom's, I sed to the doubter:

"Wuz trade ez brisk ez that afore inflashun?" which settled him.

Improvements are bein projected every day. We hev organized a company to build a branch road from here to Secessionville, another over to Bloody Fork, and still another to Little Andersonville. Five turnpike companies hev bin organized, and three factries hev bin actooally commenced. The water power on the Run just above the village is to be improved at wunst, and Bascom is already at work on a wing to the back part of the grocery. Town lots are doublin in valyoo every day, and new addishuns are bein perpetooally laid out. Everybody is spekelatin and everybody is gettin rich. There is flush times here. The people are all inflashunists.

I am president uv all these companies, and I see no reason why I cant put em through. It is troo the price uv everything hez gone up. The commonest nigger labor is now up to $8 a day, and a pair uv pegged boots is worth $25, but wat difference does that make? So long ez Simpkins, the printer, kin work his press we kin manufackter all the money we want, and ez long ez we kin manufackter money, why there must be prosperity.

Pollock and Joe Bigler we hed to get rid uv, for they wuz prejoodisen the people agin us. Pollock's stock uv goods and his store wuz worth in the old times, before the era of inflashun, about a thousand dollars, and Bascom and me and Deekin Pogram went to him and offered him that sum for his property.

"Things hez riz," sed he, "and I won't sell for less than $2,600."

We promptly accepted that price, and I sent a boy back to the bank with a bushel basket to bring the money. When it come Pollock refoosed to take it.

"I want greenbax," sed he.

"Our money is jest ez good," sed I.

"I know it," sez he, "but I have a prejoodis in favor of other money."

There wuz a crowd about, and it would never do to acknowledge that any money wuz better than ours. I took Bascom to one side.

"G. W.," sez I, "here is a golden opportunity to do two things. First, we git rid of a disturber, and second, we give confidence in our ishoos. Rake up what greenbax yoo hev and pay him in em."

G. W. consented, and it wuz done in the presence uv the people.

"Yoo see," sed I to my friends, "that we'd jest as soon pay greenbax ez our own money."

The crowd was reashoored, and took our bills ez readily ez ever. Pollock and Bigler gave up the property, but they didn't leave the village. On the contrary they went to the tavern to board and jeered at us wuss than ever. They sed they hed made more money by this transackshen than they hed ever made in the Corners since they hed landed here.

Deekin Pogram, Captain McPelter and Issaker Gavitt hev all paid off mortgages on their farms, and I hev bot a farm and am gettin up plans for a manshun befittin my new position. I am now happy and contented. I hev finely struck my gait. Bank Presiden soots me—I wuz born for it. Ef I wuz religiusly inclined I shood pray for Willyum Allen until I hed corns on both knees.

PETROLEUM V. NASBY,
President uv the Onlimited Trust and Confidence Company.

P. S.—There's a triflin but still embarrassin trouble okkured. The unprecedented run on Bascom in consekence uv the plentifulness uv money exhausted his stock uv likkers yesterday, and he sent to Looisville for more. The likker merchants uv that mersenary city, ez a mere matter uv form, generally require Bascom to pay for goods afore they ship em, to avoid mistakes. He sent on a thousand dollars of our money, and they refoozed to take it! Ez he paid all the greenbax he had to Pollock he can't get supplies, and the Corners is parched. Wat to do we don't know. We don't see why our money shoodent go in Looisville.

It will take two weeks to ship enough grain to Looisville to exchange for the likker, and then comes another terrible quondary. Bascom demands the grain uv the bank and wants to pay for it in the bank's ishoos! And he insists on hevin it at wat its wuth in Looisville in greenbax! Finanseerin aint the easiest bizniss in the world. Our money startid well enuff on the circle, but there seams to be a break in it. Ef we let Bascom hev that grain and take our own money for it, where is our profits? Ef we don't let him hev the grain the Corners will die uv drouth! And ef he gets it our money must be taken for it, for it's all he's got. I cood cut the Gorjen knot by failin, but then the wheat wood be attached; I shell hold on and see wat a week will bring forth. Providence never deserted me yit.

A Salt Lake paper states that a few days ago a party of miners jumped the Emma mine, and before they were discovered, took out several tons of ore.

The first number of the Daily Echo, published by Francis H. Cook, at Olympia, is before us. It is small in size, but contains a good deal for all that.

A letter from Warren, North Idaho, says that they are taking out very rich ore there, some of which will pay from $25 to $50 per pound, by crushing in a hand mortar.

John Stiles, a half breed, has been arrested and committed to the Pierce county jail to await trial for committing rape upon the person of a little girl of five summers in Tacoma.

Sergeant Brown, of one of the military companies stationed at Walla Walla, was found on the street there one night recently with a hole in his head, which had been made with a hatchet. He was taken to the hospital and up to last advices was in a very precarious condition. The man with the little hatchet is wanted.

THE BAKER CITY BANK FAILURE

BAKER CITY, Sept. 10, 1875.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN:

My object in writing to you is to let you know, and through you the public, that we cannot get our mail matter at this point regularly from Portland. The fault lies somewhere below this point.

The open announcement of the suspension of the bank at this place created quite a flutter among the poor unsophisticated depositors, who of course thought, and some of them now think (in vain), that they will get their money yet. People are no worse off here than before. They know now they will not get their deposits before they hoped.

The Bank organ, the Democrat, now being run by the old man's son, announced in its last issue that the Bank had assets to the amount of $113,000, whereas the Herald man had it $13,000—quite a difference in a little town like Baker City. It is said by very hopeful persons the thing will resume. How it can do so with all of its depositors' money invested in wild cat ditch speculations, unremunerating mines and non paying real estate investments, is the public conundrum. Our people now know their money is gone where the woodbine twineth, and this knowledge at this juncture ought to be grateful to them, for they have time now to prepare for the worst.

No perceptible change in business matters since the occurrence has taken place. It is said Baker county and school district No. 5 were heavy depositors in the bank. Whether they will lose or not is another query.

Yours in haste, PUBLIC JUSTICE.

The body of the Indian drowned at Salem last Saturday has been found.

OREGON

East Portland had a first class runaway item yesterday.

In about two weeks hence the jury list will be drawn for the coming term of the state circuit court.

Next Monday the United States circuit court will convene. Tuesday following the United States district court will meet.

Sheriff Schutz, having in custody young Webber, who was arrested at Albany for horse stealing, will start for the Dalles this morning.

There is more improvements and more evidence of prosperity going forward in Roseburg now than at any one time for a number of years.

Wheat is arriving at Roseburg at the rate of 80 tons a day. The warehouses are full. The yield of wheat in Douglas county was never so large before.

A blacksmith shop belonging to Mr. Parker, on Butte creek, Wasco county, was burned one night last week. Supposed to have been set on fire. Loss $200.

Mr. Churchill, who was badly hurt by getting caught in the machinery of a thresher near Roseburg a short time ago, died from the effects of his injuries last week.

Silver Lodge No. 36, I. O. of G. T., has elected Hon. W. Cranston, E. P. Smith, A. A. Leonard, Susie Dudley, Edna Brown and Mollie Mescher to the State Temperance Union.

J. H. Fisk, the well-known assayer, is occupying his spare time manufacturing babbitt metal out of some old metal faucets which are out of date and cannot be utilized except in this manner.

G. W. C. T. Dunbar lectured on temperance at the Dalles last week. Mr. Dunbar has visited every lodge of Good Templars in Eastern Oregon, organized many new ones and resuscitated a number that were on the decline. He reports the order as being in a prosperous condition throughout the state.

A spirited row occurred in a lot of men working with a thresher near Roseburg last week. Pitchforks, pistols, etc., were threateningly used, and some half a dozen persons were engaged in the fray. A few sensible parties were present and succeeded in making peace before blood was shed.

OREGON CITY ITEMS

Our regular correspondent sends the following notes under date of Sept. 14th:

Monday night was the occasion of a social dance at the library rooms. The attendance was not large, but it was a decidedly enjoyable affair nevertheless. The Oregon City String Band furnished excellent music for the occasion.

Quite an excitement occurred across the way last night. Some fifty or sixty Chinamen occupy a large two-story building on Main street, once known as the Washington Hotel, and long since disused for anything but Chinese quarters. About 8 o'clock a crowd was attracted to the place by such yells and screams and howls as do not often disturb the quiet of this slow going burg. The Celestials barred the door, and at first denied admittance to all Melican men, but at length an officer put in an appearance and found his way inside, followed by a crowd, bent on seeing the fun. The row was soon stopped, and it appeared that the [illegible] the determination of some unexplained difference. Nobody seemed to be seriously hurt, and no arrests were made—partly perhaps upon the strength of an explanation offered by one unconcerned looking Hong Kong, that "It was nothing, all same Melican man's Fourth July."

Farmers are now rapidly marketing their grain in this county, notwithstanding they cannot get quite the dollar per bushel they could have got some time since and have been disposed to hold out for; 95 cents is the price paid at the mills here. There is still some grain in the county not threshed, though all is in the stack by this time, ready to thresh. But little of the grain was damaged by the late rains, though they occasioned much serious foreboding among farmers two weeks ago.

Not much political feeling in this burg. It is pretty well settled that every man shall vote at the ensuing election for whom he thinks is the best man—excepting all bed rock Democrats of course. I know of but one man who will certainly vote for Whitney and for Dimick—alas! not one. Of course everybody around here knows Warren. His face is as familiar as the land office stairs. Nearly every voter around here—except the class above mentioned—will record his judgment at the coming election in favor of men vs. party by voting for Warren, unless it may be a few others may be captivated by the flame of Lafayette's reputed alcoholic "brilliancy."

OFFICIAL RESPONSIBILITY.

There appears of late to be a very decided toning up of public sentiment on the subject of official responsibility. The eyes of the country were opened to the fearful condition of affairs in this respect by the publication connected with the Credit Mobilier investigation in the winter of 1872-3, and from that time forward there has been an almost incessant flood of charges and investigations touching the conduct of public officers. The Government has been compelled to countenance and encourage these investigations, by a popular demand which could not be resisted. The Credit Mobilier politicians were driven into retirement. The ring that plundered the people through the government of the District of Columbia was broken up. The back-salary grabbers met with speedy retribution at the hands of an indignant public. The supposed taint of corruption prevented the confirmation of one man for Chief Justice of the United States and of another for a high position connected with the District Government. Officers holding positions of lesser importance have in numerous instances been driven from their places by reason of discoveries of such delinquencies as a few years ago would have gone unrebuked.

In the State and local governments there are encouraging signs of a tendency toward a higher standard of official conduct. The canal frauds in New York, the cases of the treasurers of New Jersey and Louisiana, and many other cases of recent occurrence which may be recalled by the intelligent reader, evidence the increase of vigilance and the more rigid requirements of the times.

To the independent and fearless press more than to any other agency, or all others combined, this advance in public sentiment is due. The demand of the independent press—and by that name we mean the truly independent of all political parties as well as those of no party relations—for a higher morality in politics has been urged with such uncompromising persistence and with such utter indifference to the question whose positions or hopes might be affected, that it could not with safety be refused by any party. The emancipation of the press was the event upon which the power of the people to enforce their wishes hinged, and so long as the press maintains its freedom from partisan control, so long will it be possible to secure a reasonably honest administration of public affairs. Until there shall be some radical change in human nature itself, there will be instances of official dishonesty, and instances too in which the knaves will escape with their plunder, but a free and independent newspaper press backed up by a free and and independent citizenship can reduce the frequency of these instances till they [illegible] rather than the rule. The work is well begun and it should not be allowed to stop. It has become possible to drag scoundrelism out of its hiding places and into public gaze, without being set upon by corrupt knaves and sentimental imbeciles as malicious defamers of private character. Officers against whom charges are made can no longer put down the assailant by appealing to the public for immunity from personal criticism. They must answer the charges and purge themselves of the wrong alleged against them, or they go to the wall.

It is a good time to take a further step in the same direction. Official neglect, inattention to duty, should be made an objective point of attack. An appointment to office, high or low, should be regarded the same as private employment, so far as the requirement of industry and efficiency are concerned. A man who is receiving a salary from the government should give the government as good service as he would be expected to give a private employe. Sinecures are a fraud on the people, and should not be tolerated in any branch of the public service. Paying two men for work which one is capable of doing, is nothing but plundering the people to the extent of one salary. This is a matter in which there is an urgent demand for reformation. The heads of departments and bureaus should be held responsible for the efficiency of their respective corps, and for the service they represent being performed by the smallest force compatible with such efficiency. Heretofore this subject has been but incidentally considered, public attention being engrossed with the greater matter of positive derelictions. It should be directly agitated till the needed reform is brought about.

A SHORT SERMON ON THE RALSTON INDIGNATION MEETING.

The Chicago Tribune, Boston Advertiser and other leading papers of the East, treat the performance of the Ralston meeting held at San Francisco last Wednesday exactly right. If people are so enamored of the peculiar practices of Mr. Ralston that they must needs assemble themselves together to celebrate his name, they have a right to do so; but managers of the demonstration were in very unusual and very contemptible business when they call together a great crowd under the pretense of honoring the dead, and then make the meeting the occasion for venting their personal spleen and gratifying their malice against successful rivals in business and opponents in politics. We can hardly imagine a more indecent and disreputable performance than that of using the affections of the people for the dead banker as a means of entrapping them into a cowardly assault upon the living.

But this demonstration, had it been kept within its legitimate bounds, presents a subject for reflection which seems to have been overlooked on all hands, and to which we propose to call attention, at the risk of being thought too little regardful of the rule that requires that no ill shall be spoken of the dead. It is not denied, so far as we have observed, that the failure of the Bank of California was the result of the illegitimate and reckless speculating and gambling schemes of its late president. It is not denied that he appropriated vast amounts of the resources of the bank, of which he was but a mere trustee, to improper purposes, without the knowledge of the directors. It is not denied that when he was removed from his position at the head of the bank, the day before his death, he was behind with the institution between three and four millions, for moneys appropriated to his own use. It is not even denied that at his palace he kept up all the evil, as well as the unobjectionable appointments of an oriental prince, and gratified himself with whatever luxury the appetite could crave, not omitting those things which are as well understood without being written. And yet his death clothes half a city in mourning, and immense meetings are held to do honor to his memory. What is the explanation of all this? Forsooth, he was rich, or at least handled vast quantities of money. He gave largely to charitable institutions. He was the patron of orphan-asylums and reform schools and female hospitals, and did not forget the church. He was the founder of manufactories and friend of enterprise generally. And besides all this, he gave meat and drink to an innumerable host of thrifty people without known occupations. It was these things that enshrined him in the affections of the people, made them strew flowers in his path as he walked through the world, while the crowd on either hand threw up their hats and shouted hosannas to his name. It is proper to be grateful to one, who, having by honest effort won the smiles of fortune, uses his gains to make others happy. There is nothing else that so challenges one's natural appreciation of true greatness of character as that unselfish benevolence that rises above charity and becomes philanthropy. But the giving of fifty thousand dollars from an ill-gotten million for benevolent purposes is not such a deed. The indiscriminate bestowal of honor and praise, where the getting of means was by doubtful methods, and their expenditure in the main worse than doubtful, can have only a demoralizing influence upon society. The evil of such a life is rendered doubly effective by the approbation of those who are looked up to as exemplars and teachers of morals. An instance or two of this we have had here in Oregon. We need not mention names, for every intelligent reader will fill the blank at once. Can anybody dispute what we have said as to the effect. The evidences are all about us. Look at half a dozen wrecks which you can see at any time and ask your memory how they came to be wrecks. It is time for those who stand on the watch-towers to sound the note of warning. There is subject matter here for at least one sermon from every pulpit in the land.

It is too bad for Senator Morton, the way the Maine election has gone. It was the scene of his first work after he had confessed himself and turned from the evil of his ways on the currency question. It was no small matter for a man of Mr. Morton's standing and character to face about on so important a question as that of the national finances, and from an apostle of rag money inflation become an expounder of the hard money gospel. Mr. Morton's courage was put to a severe test, but he did not weaken. And then to have his very first work in the new character "go back" on him! Well, the fault was not Morton's. The trouble was the people somehow wouldn't get excited over the bloody shirt as they used to do, and as that was about all Mr. Morton talked about in Maine, he did not succeed in the old time enthusiasm, and the election went by default. If this event shall teach the Republican orators and writers the necessity of relying for success upon present issues instead of unpleasant remeniscences, the losses in Maine will prove gains throughout the country.

Robert Clarke & Co., publishers of Cincinnati, are getting out a "History of the Army of the Cumberland," written by Chaplain Van Horne at the request of the late Gen. Geo. H. Thomas, from Gen. Thomas' private diary and other authentic documents, and illustrated with campaign and battle-field maps compiled by Captain Ruger, of the topographical engineers. The work will be in two volumes, octavo. The motto which the author has steadily kept in view was furnished by Gen. Thomas himself as the guide of the author: "Write nothing but the truth." It must prove an interesting and valuable book, if the work is done according to that motto.

Mr. Blanton Duncan gives, in the Louisville Commercial, an interesting account of the Confederate currency. He says the total issue exceeded $350,000,000. This currency was 85 cents in November, 1861; 60 cents in May, 1862; 45 to 50 cents in November, 1862; 16 cents in July, 1863; 8 cents in November, 1863; 5 cents in May, 1864, from which time to the close of the war it fluctuated between 6 cents and nothing at all, till the end came.

The returns from the Maine election, so far as they are in, show very considerable Democratic gains. As we said some days since, the Maine election has but little significance as a political event. The contest in Ohio which will take place October 12th, may be regarded as in some measure a test of the present state and tendency of the public mind. No effort has been made in Maine, because the result has been considered as of little importance.

Our neighbor of the Evening Journal is still agitated over the supposed discovery that in 1852 Henry Warren was a Know-nothing. Like the man who refused ox tail soup, we take the liberty of suggesting to our neighbor that he has gone a little too far back for his material.

John Anderson, founder of the School of Natural History has just recovered from a protracted illness, in which for a time his life was dispaired of.

Indian Agent Gibson, against whom a charge of making out false vouchers was made, has come to grief. The committee appointed to investigate the charge have wickedly and maliciously found him guilty.

The Cincinnati Commercial is uncharitable enough to remark in connection with the Red Cloud business, that "Mr. Delano is already knocked down, and might as well be dragged out."

A "Bar" Hunt.—We are indebted to ou regular Kalama correspondent for the follow ing particulars of a bear hunt: "A party ... our young nimrods, more noted for the hunting proclivities than for piety, started ou early Sunday morning in quest of gam They were accompanied by Dick Sarter, ou popular colored watchman, who is the happ possessor of something like seventeen dog They hunted with various success, and no ing unusual occurred till near night, and th party were coming home, Dick, with the dog having already preceded them. They we less than half a mile below town, when o from a clump of bushes started a large brow bear. Jack W immediately brought h shotgun in range between his eagle optic an the carcass of bruin, and vaccinated him wit number four shot; this had the effect accelerating his speed—not from the boys, b toward them. Then you might have seen wha urgent business the boys suddenly had i town. The bear singled out Charley C the special object of his attentions. No Charley was built for a foot-racer, and nobl did he sustain his reputation on this occasion Parties who witnessed the race say it was a r markably fine exhibition of speed. But th timely reinforcement of Dick and his dogs pr vented a total rout and the capture of th town. The shadows of night were now fal ing, and bruin no doubt thinking he had wo glory enough for one day, wisely retreate and thus ends our bear story."

Patent Flour.—We had yesterday an o portunity to examine a specimen of flour pr duced from middlings by treatment with th "La Croix middlings purifier," which is a invention designed to separate the white fro the brown, husky matter in ordinary mi dlings. Middlings put through this proce are separated into three parts—one a shar granular substance, containing only the whi portion: another much like it in other r spects, but made of the part of the grain lyin near the husky matter, and of brown colo and the third, a velvety sort of bran, which taken out by means of a suction blower, whi the other two are separated by bolting. Th white product is then put through the bu and again bolted, producing a brand of flo far superior in appearance to any flour w have seen in the market. We were also pe mitted to try some bread made from this flou by Messrs. Barlow & Fuller, of Oregon Cit which we pronounce as fine bread as any w ever saw or tasted. It is light, spongy an white, and of excellent flavor. Messrs. Mill Marshall & Co., of the Oregon City mills, a prepared to manufacture this flour, and expe in a short time to have it on the market. The inform us that it commands in New Yor where it has been produced for some tim from $1 50 to $2 more per barrel than the lea ing brands of ordinary flour.

Good Samaritan Hospital.—Speaking the formal opening of the above institutio the Churchman says: "The opening of the Go Samaritan Hospital, appointed for Oct. 9t gives a rare chance to those who delight doing good. Benevolence can here be gra fied and generosity be practiced to the fulle extent. Many things will be needed for th proper care of the inmates. Furniture, ma tresses, bed-linen of all kinds, coverlids, rug and the like, for the wards; medicines, an the many other articles required in the di pensary; furniture for the reception-room an dining-room: these are needed now, an always will be needed. Valuable help, ther fore, in carrying on the work of the hospita can be given by furnishing any of these ar ticles or the means to purchase them. Mone also, for endowing beds, will be of great assi ance.

Dried Plums.—Mr. Plummer has placed b fore us two boxes of sweet Damson plum which have just been dried by the Plumm Fruit Preserving Company in East Portlan From a casual inspection of the fruit we u hesitatingly pronounce it superior, in every e sential regard, to any dried fruit which w have yet seen in this country. Its appearan and flavor fully justifies all that has been sa in favor of fruit preserved by the Plumm process. The manufactory in East Portland running to its fullest capacity, day and nig and is turning out large quantities of fruit, e pecially plums. To impress one with the s periority of the fruit cured by the Plumm process over all others, it is only necessary give it a fair test. The company are no ready to fill all orders, either here or fro abroad.

Assault and Battery.—Lewis Young, wh was arrested on Monday evening on tw charges both of assault and battery—prefe red by Mr. and Mrs. Bonits, was called up f trial in police court yesterday mornin Young, it seems, entered the boarding hou of the complainants on Monday, and manag to render himself very obnoxious to the i mates. He was requested to "vacate" short order, but instead of doing so, assault Bonits. When the wife interfered, You transferred his hostilities to the woman an assaulted her. After hearing all the eviden in the cases, the court dismissed the char preferred by the husband, but fined defenda $50 for assaulting the wife. Young failed come to time on the money question, and w committed to the county jail.

Premiums Purchased.—On yesterday, M E. M. Waite, secretary of the Oregon Sta Agricultural Society, came down and pu chased the silver ware designed as pr miums for the coming fair. The articl bought were of the most elegant pattern finely finished, and will prove highly accept ble to those who may be fortunate enough win them. The purchases were made of B. Stone, the popular jeweler. Mr. Waite i forms us that the only thing necessary to sure the grandest fair Oregon ever had is go weather, the preparations made being of th most thorough and elaborate order. Let o Jupiter Pluvius withhold his showers, an visitors by the thousands will see all the wo ders of this favored land collected on th grounds.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT 15 1875

A Bear Hunt —We are indebted to our regular Kalama correspondent for the following particulars of a bear hunt A party of our young nimrods more noted for their hunting proclivities than for piety, started out early Sunday morning in quest of game They were accompanied by Dick Sarter our popular colored watchman who is the happy possessor of something like seventeen dogs They hunted with various success and nothing unusual occurred till near night and the party were coming home, Dick with the dogs having already preceded them. They were less than half a mile below town when out from a clump of bushes started a large brown bear Jack W—— immediately brought his shotgun in range between his eagle optic and the carcass of bruin and vaccinated him with number four shot, this had the effect of accelerating his speed—not from the boys but toward them Then you might have seen what urgent business the boys suddenly had in town The bear singled out Charley C—— as the special object of his attentions Now, Charley was built for a foot racer and nobly did he sustain his reputation on this occasion Parties who witnessed the race say it was a remarkably fine exhibition of speed But the timely reinforcement of Dick and his dogs prevented a total rout and the capture of the town The shadows of night were now falling and bruin no doubt thinking he had won glory enough for one day, wisely retreated, and thus ends our bear story."

Patent Flour —We had yesterday an opportunity to examine a specimen of flour produced from middlings by treatment with the "La Croix middlings purifier," which is an invention designed to separate the white from the brown husky matter in ordinary middlings. Middlings put through this process are separated into three parts—one a sharp granular substance containing only the white portion another much like it in other respects, but made of the part of the grain lying near the husky matter, and of brown color, and the third, a velvety sort of bran which is taken out by means of a suction blower while the other two are separated by bolting The white product is then put through the burs and again bolted, producing a brand of flour far superior in appearance to any flour we have seen in the market We were also permitted to try some bread made from this flour by Messrs. Barlow & Fuller, of Oregon City which we pronounce as fine bread as any we ever saw or tasted It is light spongy and white, and of excellent flavor Messrs Miller Marshall & Co, of the Oregon City mills are prepared to manufacture this flour, and expect in a short time to have it on the market They inform us that it commands in New York where it has been produced for some time from $1 50 to $2 more per barrel than the leading brands of ordinary flour

Good Samaritan Hospital —Speaking of the formal opening of the above institution the Churchman says "The opening of the Good Samaritan Hospital, appointed for Oct 9th, gives a rare chance to those who delight in doing good Benevolence can here be gratified and generosity be practiced to the fullest extent, Many things will be needed for the proper care of the inmates Furniture mattresses, bed linen of all kinds coverlids, rugs and the like, for the wards medicines and the many other articles required in the dispensary, furniture for the reception room and dining room these are needed now and always will be needed Valuable help therefore, in carrying on the work of the hospital can be given by furnishing any of these articles or the means to purchase them Money also, for endowing beds will be of great assistance.

Dried Plums —Mr Plummer has placed before us two boxes of sweet Damson plums which have just been dried by the Plummer Fruit Preserving Company in East Portland From a casual inspection of the fruit we unhesitatingly pronounce it superior, in every essential regard, to any dried fruit which we have yet seen in this country. Its appearance and flavor fully justifies all that has been said in favor of fruit preserved by the Plummer process. The manufactory in East Portland is running to its fullest capacity day and night and is turning out large quantities of fruit, especially plums. To impress one with the superiority of the fruit cured by the Plummer process over all others it is only necessary to give it a fair test The company are now ready to fill all orders, either here or from abroad

Assault and Battery —Lewis Young, who was arrested on Monday evening on two charges—both of assault and battery—preferred by Mr and Mrs. Bonits was called up for trial in police court yesterday morning Young, it seems entered the boarding house of the complainants on Monday and managed to render himself very obnoxious to the inmates He was requested to vacate in short order but instead of doing so, assaulted Bonits, When the wife interfered, Young transferred his hostilities to the woman and assaulted her After hearing all the evidence in the cases the court dismissed the charge preferred by the husband but fined defendant $50 for assaulting the wife Young failed to come to time on the money question and was committed to the county jail

Premiums Purchased —On yesterday Mr E M Waite, secretary of the Oregon State Agricultural Society, came down and purchased the silver ware designed as premiums for the coming fair The articles bought were of the most elegant patterns finely finished and will prove highly acceptable to those who may be fortunate enough to win them. The purchases were made of B L Stone the popular jeweler Mr Waite informs us that the only thing necessary to insure the grandest fair Oregon ever had is good weather, the preparations made being of the most thorough and elaborate order Let old Jupiter Pluvius withhold his showers and visitors by the thousands will see all the wonders of this favored land collected on the grounds,

Found Comfortable Homes — Reference was made in yesterday's issue to the case of Mrs. Walker who is now in the city jail serving out a term for drunkenness and of the fact that she is the mother of two little girls also to the additional fact that it would be an act of true benevolence to take the children and find them homes where they could be reared up to pure and virtuous lives We are gratified to state that several kind hearted ladies connected with the Relief Society have with the most commendable promptness, taken the case in hand Yesterday afternoon these little wanderers were conveyed to the Home, where they will be kindly cared for until comfortable homes can be found

Annual Convocation —The annual convocation of the missionary jurisdiction of Oregon and Washington will assemble (D V) in Trinity church, Portland on Thursday evening October 7th 1875 Bishop Morris requests that all the parochial reports for the next convocation may be sent to him by the 30th of September Every parish or organized mission is entitled to send not more than three lay delegates who must be communicants If there be a vestry the delegates must be elected at a meeting of the vestry duly called for that purpose Where there is no vestry or the vestry fail to elect, the clergymen may appoint the delegates from his congregation

Insurance —Mr Ed Hall the popular insurance man, has severed his connection with the Firemen's Fund Insurance Co , and is now acting as sole and exclusive agent for the Oregon branch of the North British and Mercantile Fire Insurance Co of London and Edinburgh He can be found at his old stand Front street between Alder and Washington where he will be pleased to meet his old friends and patrons. [illegible] is running a first class company —one that is worthy of the confidence and patronage of the public

Board of Trade.—The regular monthly meeting of the Portland board of trade will be held this evening at the rooms Ankeny's building at 7 30 sharp Important business on the tapis, and a full attendance desired

Held to Answer —Ah Lee the sanguinary dispositioned Celestial who attempted to perform a little job of carving on the symmetrical outlines of a countryman named Hoong Chin on Monday afternoon was arraigned yesterday morning in police court to answer a charge of assault with a dangerous weapon There being a sufficiency of evidence to satisfy the mind of the court Ah Lee was bound over to await the action of the grand jury His bonds were fixed at $500 In default John is one of Sheriff Jeffery's guests

Making Copies —Last week by order of the county court Mr Geo L Story was authorized to make three copies of the assessment roll as required by law On Friday the task was commenced and bids fair to require several weeks in its completion There are now engaged in making out these rolls Messrs B F Goodwin W R Sewall Charles Schram and C K Harbaugh Up to last evening these gentlemen had reached the letter F

Court —County court will convene this morning at the usual hour for the transaction of business The first thing to be disposed of will be the case of Jacob Sohmm vs Caroline Beck This is a civil case and will be tried by a jury After disposing of the above case some probate matters will be taken under advisement by the court At 3 o clock in the afternoon the commissioners will meet

A Shooting Match —The Walla Walla Union in speaking of a prospective shooting match between the crack shots of that town and Portland says "There is some talk of a shooting match to come off here before long between a number of Portland gentlemen and a similar number of our best shootists When we hear further particulars we will have more to say about it.

SOCIAL EVENTS.

The entertainment given in the lecture room adjoining museum hall last evening for the benefit of Rev A B Smith pastor of A M E Zion church was largely attended, and must have netted a neat sum for the gentleman to whom the proceeds were tendered The affair was managed from the beginning by George Brown and Augustus Waterford two of the eldest members of the Sabbath school connected with the church The programme consisted of dialogue declamations vocal and instrumental music during which intermissions were given to refresh at the table presided over by the ladies (and by the way the committee took occasion to send a sample to this office) who were kept busy in dispensing the edibles Judging from the applause at intervals and the late hour of closing, the entertainment must have been quite pleasing to those in attendance

The sociable at the Congregational church under the especial charge of the young folks of the congregation was one of the most enjoyable affairs ever held in Portland as far as our experience goes The entertainment as announced beforehand was divided into two parts —restaurant and art gallery Of the former it is only necessary to say it was good as usual every dainty of the season being served by attentive young ladies and gentlemen in style always characteristic to such occasions. One new and good feature was the neatly printed bills of fare in regular restaurant style The art gallery was a new thing in Portland and was a decided success Certain mysterious hints let fall before the entertainment commenced led the uninitiated to expect something good and when they were admitted to the gallery their expectations were not disappointed

The works of art displayed were numerous and executed in the highest style We have not space to enumerate and criticise all the works as they deserve and can mention only a few of the most prominent

No 1 The Bridal by H Arness was well made

No 7 Portrait of a Portland Lawyer, by A Sphere, looked natural and his friends easily recognized him though the original is not quite so nearly spherical except in name

No 12 Consolation by M Winslow was in a rather larger sized bottle than those usually sold in drug stores but otherwise was a good representation of the children's friend

No 13 Portrait of the Pastor looked not quite as large as life but very natural and we suggest that the plate on which it was taken be preserved, that copies may be made in future

No 28 a Pair of Cryed Eagles by G Mint was perhaps the most valuable work exhibited

No 30, The Suicide by Anna Hilate was a vivid and touching illustration of Hood's beautiful poem

One more unfortunate
* * * * *
Rashly importunate
Gone to her death

The attitude of the dead fly lying on the margin of the plate of molasses was very graceful and suggested an entirely new conception of the poem

No 14 Sheridan's Ride, was a representation of a ride which was not all a ride, of the Lieut General from Portland to Vancouver

Altogether the young ladies who originated and conducted the festival may congratulate themselves on the originality and success of their venture The attendance was very large and the financial results were doubtless gratifying

OREGON STATE MEDICAL SOCIETY.

Yesterday afternoon at 1 o clock the members of the Oregon State Medical Society met in the parlor of the St Charles hotel in this city

There were present quite a number of members of the medical profession

The Society was called to order by the president Dr Alfred Kinney and after the transaction of some preliminary business proceeded to the election of officers to serve for the ensuing year

The following persons were chosen officers President Dr R Glisan of Portland Vice President Dr O P S Plummer of Albany Recording Secretary, Dr C C Strong of Portland Corresponding Secretary Dr Wm B Cardwell of Portland Treasurer Dr L L Rowland of Salem

Dr Strong being compelled to be absent Dr C H Hall, of Salem was appointed recording secretary pro tem

Among other proceedings the following resolutions were adopted by the society

Resolved That the committee on legislation use every means consistent with reason to induce the state legislature to organize a state board of health

Resolved That the committee on publication publish 500 copies of the by laws and rules of the society and the proceedings,

It was determined that the society should visit in a body St Vincent's Hospital between 9 and 10 o clock A M , and the Insane Asylum at 11 o clock

On motion the society adjourned until this afternoon at 1 o'clock

Human thoughts have come, from much use, to run in certain grooves or ruts, and to express themselves in figurative meanings, but there are some people who persistingly refuse to take these meanings figuratively but literally

A lady who delighted in analyzing feeling and emotion met a poor sailor who had suffered shipwreck, and asked him, compassionately

"How did you feel my dear man when the cold waves broke over you?" He replied simply and truly

"Wet, ma am very wet"

A Sunday school teacher once asked her class

"What did the Israelites do after crossing the Red Sea?" No one seemed prepared, but at last a little girl said

"Don't know, ma am Guess they dried themselves"

A man in Detroit was handed a bill the other day by a boy employed as collector for a firm He looked over it, put his thumb in his vest pocket, and remarked "Come in Wednesday and I will pay it" The boy went away, but returned Tuesday and again presented the bill "Didn't I tell you to come Wednesday?" answered the man angrily as he looked over the bill "Yes, sir but I know of two more collectors who are coming for you to morrow, and I thought I'd get ahead" The man could offer no further objections

The office and warerooms of the Oregon Furniture Manufacturing Company have been removed to their new building, First and Yamhill streets

Mr JOS KOHN has gone to San Francisco for the purpose of purchasing new goods for the fall and winter trade At his new and elegant Establishment, First and Morrison streets, he makes a grand display of clothing furnishing goods etc Mr Kohn knows exactly what his customers want and he has very sensibly filled his shelves with such goods as are sure to meet with satisfaction and the prices too are figured down to suit the times In a few days he will make new announcements

BECK & WALDMAN have added largely to their stock of Clothing during the past week Mr Beck has selected many new and attractive styles and forwarded the first purchases which are really the best to be seen in Portland The variety of styles for youths are numerous and no parent should fail to examine the arrivals Take your boy and have him fitted The firm have an immense stock for the fall and winter and offer special inducements to all

Business in financial circles is of moderate volume, and the usual rates are firmly sustained both as to discounts and loans. The retarded movement in the grain crops has its effect in rendering other branches of trade dull, and keeps the circulating capital of the country down to a small aggregate. The general indisposition on the part of producers to dispose of their surplus grain at current offers causes a good deal of hesitation on the part of exporters to effect charters and vessels on the market receive but few overtures. This state of affairs keeps out of circulation a large sum which would otherwise be thrown into the ordinary channels of trade. At least this cause is assigned by many business men for the general dullness prevailing in commercial circles. There are, however other circumstances to be taken into consideration in the attempt to account for any apathy in trade matters as far as the farming population is concerned. Like other business men they desire time to survey the situation and to post themselves in regard to the probabilities affecting the future of the market before placing their productions out of their reach. They are it must also be remembered not ready to sell yet being in nearly all instances still engaged in the work of harvesting, a task which owing to the peculiarity of the season is lasting longer than usual in our state. After a few weeks have passed and time has been given to inspect more carefully the condition of affairs, we have no doubt that the producers of Oregon will be willing sellers at fair rates, whatever those rates may be and that vessels coming here to load will generally have fair if not quick dispatch. This anticipated movement of the surplus crops of the country is what is needed to produce a better feeling in financial circles and to stimulate the various other branches of business in our city and state.

No country in the world recuperates from the effects of financial crises more rapidly than America, as has been seen thrice inside of two years in the instances of the great failures of Jay Cooke, Duncan Sherman & Co, and the Bank of California. But though so much has been said of these crashes and others in our country we have suffered less in that respect than England. The summing up of English failures during the year ended last July reaches the heavy amount of one hundred and ten million dollars. This exceeds the total failures throughout the United States for the past six months by more than thirty million dollars. We were assured when the first failure occurred in England that there was no danger of further suspensions of importance, and the little financial flurry would soon blow over. But these failures across the water have not yet stopped

Daily Market Review.

There are some indications of the regular opening of the fall trade but as yet the purchases or movement of goods for the interior are not large a fact accounted for by the lateness of the harvest and the slowness in the movement of our home products. The importations recently made, have filled up our home stocks which now make a fine showing. The purchases this season for the fall and winter trade have been very carefully made and the selections embrace everything necessary for the trade though the display of fancy goods in most lines is not unusually elaborate which may be taken as an indication of a compliance with the popular demand for economy. While the so called luxuries may be had in profusion by all who wish, there is an evident inclination to give the most attention to staples, and these, in farming implements and groceries are in ample supply. The large proportion of the interior trade seeking its stocks in this market will find no difficulty in making selections.

The produce market changes but little from day to day and quotations in nearly all lines stand at the closing figures of last week but there is an evident downward tendency in the breadstuffs market superinduced by the telegraphic reports from abroad during the past two days. Wheat exporters seem still indifferent purchasers at the quoted rates notwithstanding the fact that three or four vessels are at hand to load and others due. A letter just received from a leading California miller speaks rather discouragingly of the prospects of the market, and it does appear now that crops in both Europe and America are turning out somewhat better than was expected a month ago though that prices will be higher than the average for last harvest year cannot be doubted it being impossible now that France can export anything like her usual quota in supplying the English market, while the other countries that compete with the United States in those markets are none of them expected to give more than an average yield. In California recent reports indicate that the surplus will not vary much from the former estimate of 550 000 or 575 000 tons while the product of Oregon for shipment will come fully up to the mean amount estimated heretofore. A very considerable quantity is now being stored in the warehouses along the river and railroads, and fair receipts are noted at this point though that arriving from the chief grain growing counties of Linn Marion Lane Benton, Polk and Yamhill is but a tithe of their surplus. Eastern Oregon and the Walla Walla valley are sending forward rather more than is usual from that direction as the prices paid seem to satisfy the producers there better than they do those of the Wallamet valley. The receipts of oats are light and buyers seem little disposed to urge the market except to supply the local demand, as California's crop is now bearing the San Francisco quotations pretty low down.

Shipping Intelligence.

The Norwegian bark Elektra has been chartered by Messrs. Corbitt & Macleay to load wheat for Europe. She will come up the river to this port to-morrow.

The Br ship Berar is being rapidly loaded by the Salem Flouring Mills.

The bark Rival is discharging her inward cargo at Flanders wharf.

The steamship Oriflamme, due from San Francisco had not arrived at a late hour this evening.

The bark Garibaldi has not quite completed her cargo but may get off the latter part of this week.

EASTERN NEWS.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

Reunion of the Army of the Cumberland.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15—The large number of arrivals in Utica indicates that the meeting of the Army of the Cumberland will be much larger than last year. General Grant will arrive from the east at 4 A. M. in a special car. He then goes to Senator Conkling's house. General Sherman telegraphs he will arrive at the same hour from the west, with a large delegation of officers who have joined him on the way. He will be the guest of Judge Ward Hunt. There is much disappointment at the absence of General Sheridan. General Hooker, first vice president, will preside in Sheridan's stead if the condition of his health does not prevent. Governor Tilden had consented to be present to welcome the association on behalf of the state but now declines. Senator Conkling will therefore extend the welcome. Utica is in a blaze of excitement. The military ... are all elaborately decorated, and the military parade on Thursday will be large. The citizens of Utica tender a grand ball and collation at the Opera House for which preparations are completed.

UTICA, N. Y. Sept. 15.—The ninth reunion of the Society of the Army of the Cumberland opened in this city to-day under the most auspicious circumstances. The city presents a beautiful appearance, every house and place of business being elegantly decorated. Large numbers of strangers are here to see the distinguished officers and soldiers. Generals Sherman and Hooker were enthusiastically greeted when they appeared at Boggs Hotel, where the meeting was to be held. The Utica Citizens Corps, one of the oldest independent military organizations of the state, with the Governor's Island band, acted as an escort of honor. The streets through which the procession passed were crowded. The meeting did not open until nearly noon, when President Grant and Senator Conkling made their appearance. In the absence of Gen. Sheridan Gen Hooker was made chairman. Calls were made for speeches from Gens. Grant, Sherman and Hooker. The president simply bowed. Gen Sherman made a few felicitous remarks but said the programme did not call for speeches until evening. Col. McQuiston, chairman of the local executive committee of the society made an address of welcome.

UTICA N Y Sept. 15—At the afternoon session of the meeting of the Army of the Cumberland, the following were the officers elected. President Lieut. Phil. H. Sheridan. Among the vice presidents were Theo F Brown, of Illinois, Gen. W. W. Belknap of Iowa, W. D Whipple of Nebraska. The next annual meeting will be held at Philadelphia, July 6th and 7th.

President Grant in reply to calls and cheers, made a few remarks. He excused himself from making a speech but said he would like to write, and have the vast audience read what he could tell of the glorious deeds of the Army of the Cumberland. The president remarked that there were men waiting to follow him who were not afflicted with his difficulty the want of the faculty of talking in public. This point was received with laughter and cheers.

General Sherman was next called and the audience rose and gave him three hearty cheers. Gen Sherman's speech was a magnificent tribute to the Army of the Cumberland.

The Exposition at Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 15.—The attendance at the exposition yesterday was very large. The hall was well filled and the horticultural department especially crowded. The commissioners state that it was a much better day, in regard to receipts and number in attendance, than the corresponding day last year. A number of premiums for the best display of cut flowers were awarded. The display in the main hall and agricultural department is very fine. Among the distinguished visitors from abroad are Lord Houghton of England and Director General Gorham, of the international exposition.

Maine Election.

AUGUSTA Me, Sept. 15—Returns from 371 towns give Connor (Rep) 53 297 Roberts (Dem) 48,713, Connor's majority 4 584. The same towns last year gave Dingley (Rep), 48.020, Titcomb (Dem), 37,818, Dingley's majority 10,202. The republicans elected ... and the democrats 11 senators.

Colorado Election.

DENVER, Sept 15—Returns from the election in the Territory come in very slow. Arapaho county gives a majority of the Republican ticket. The democrats elect one of two councilmen and three of four members of the house. They also elect deputy treasurer. Last fall the county gave over ... democratic majority. The result in the Territory is doubtful, both parties claiming the legislature.

Election for Constitutional Convention.

The governor has issued a call for an election on the ... of October, for members of the constitutional convention which will meet on the 20th of November. The Republicans claim that they will have a good majority in the convention.

Terrible Explosion of Gunpowder—Destructive Fire.

CINCINNATI Sept. 15—At Georgetown, Ky yesterday as Lewis Ersen Schmidt clerk in Harlow's store, was loading a pistol for a young man named ... the weapon went off at half cock, discharging into a can of gunpowder, which exploded blowing out the front of the store and flooring Ersen Schmidt and Herring. The store took fire and was soon consumed. The adjoining stores of Ban... & Wells, Frank Lyon Morris Davis and W. ... were also wholly or in part consumed. The total loss will probably reach $50 000. Ersen Schmidt and Herring were very dangerously injured.

Bank Robber Shot and Captured.

LOUISVILLE, Sep. 17—Detectives Blight and Gallagher received a dispatch this morning from Crab Orchard stating that one of the Virginia bank robbers supposed to belong to the Younger gang was shot and captured at that point.

LOUISVILLE Sept. 15—Louisville detectives report the wounding and capture of a man supposed to be one who recently robbed the Hunting (Va) bank of $4000. He was captured at Pine Hill, Kentucky, Tuesday night by two residents named Dillians, who had a fight with four others. It is thought he belongs to the James Younger band. They succeeded in wounding and capturing this man who answers to the description of Cal. Younger.

Letter from Henry Ward Beecher.

NEW YORK Sept 11—Following is a letter of Rev Henry Ward Beecher to the district attorney of Brooklyn in relation to the libel suit against Francis D. Moulton

TWIN MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Aug 30.

To Winchester Britton Esq—DEAR SIR.—Your letter commending to my attention certain considerations which incline you to relinquish the criminal suit against Mr Moulton and Mr Tilton was duly received and considered. I think that the views which you present are sound and wise. It would seem to be an axiom that no suit should be carried on in which neither individuals nor society can hope for benefit. Should you in your further discretion enter a nolle prosequi I believe all right thinking citizens will regard your action with approbation when made aware of the reasons.

Sincerely yours,
HENRY WARD BEECHER.
